

MySize Granted Patent from United States Patent & Trademark Office for MySizeID Smart Measurement Solution

Airport City, Israel – December 1, 2020 – My Size, Inc. (the "Company" or "My Size") (NASDAQ: MYSZ) (TASE: MYSZ), the developer and creator of smartphone measurement solutions, today announced that it was granted a patent from the United States Patent & Trademark Office for its application, titled: "System for and a method of measuring a path length using a handheld electronic device." With this latest patent MySize has nine total issued/allowed patents and 10 patent applications pending worldwide.

The patent covers the methods and systems for measuring a body part of a user using a handheld electronic device, which is part of MySizeID's foundational technology. MySizeID's proprietary algorithms utilize a smartphone's sensors combined with anthropometric data to provide customers highly accurate sizing information for specific brands, based on the users' exact measurements.

"Receiving this patent in the US now represents another step forward for MySize's capabilities, as well as an unprecedented opportunity for brands amidst the shift to e-commerce," said Ronen Luzon, CEO, and Founder of MySize. "The cost of reverse logistics stands at over half a trillion dollars yearly and by further enabling customers to have confidence in their purchases, we're dramatically reducing costs while cementing customer loyalty."
